

Integrating Cooperative Learning: Student Engagement and On-Task Behaviors

Cooperative learning structures carefully engineer student interaction to maximize active engagement, on-task behaviors and communication skills.

During this 2-day workshop, teachers will learn the difference between cooperative learning and group work and walk away with 10 structures to utilize in their classrooms during the 2018-19 school year.

Please have your school contact person register you at register.caboces.org.
