STEM is in the air everywhere, and this circuit will address the questions and topics involving the subject. Join fellow colleagues as we dig deeper to explore strategies and resources that support the instruction of STEM in collaboration with other core subjects. This circuit is for any educators interested in learning about the STEM mindset and how to infuse it within their district.

Participants will be able to experience:

- BOCES Resources
- Curriculum Development
- STEM Field Experts
- Teacher's Practices
- Instructional Strategies
- "Unpacking" Standards
