

School Librarians Collaborative Learning Community: Power Up and Out

Date: 11/13/2019, 1/9/2020, 4/7/2020

Site: CA BOCES - Learning Resources

Time: 08:30 AM – 02:30 PM

COSER
510

Description:

School librarians will analyze their library program and instruction, and discuss with colleagues pertinent issues. Structure for the CLC includes personalized professional development centered around increasing student achievement. Although fluid in topics, this CLC offers the lone practicing librarian an opportunity to network with other librarians and sharpen skills.

Facilitator(s):

Cecelia Fuoco

Objectives:

Participants will:

- * actively engage with colleagues in meaningful conversations centered around student achievement, instruction, and the school library program
- * continuously evaluate their instruction and how it complements student achievement
- * design a plan for sharing artifacts of student learning and achievement

Audience:

School Librarians
