I expected:

More suggestions to implement play based learning into our classrooms.

I received:

Standards to relate our play based learning to.

After this workshop I plan to:

Read the book you gave. - Be mindful of my engagement & questioning with my students.

I still need:

Help setting up a better play based classroom while still creating meaningful & authentic learning & also assessing through play vs. paper/pencil & flash card type quizzing of skills.

4. The workshop will impact how I work to improve student learning.	1	2	3	(4)	5
5. I would recommend this learning opportunity.	1	2	3	4	(5)

Please comment:

- side by side updates from state ed are helpful.
- interactive read aloud was helpful as reminder of how to revisit in meaningful ways

I expected:

updates & suggestions

I received:

good info

After this workshop I plan to:

ignore some books & expand use of others— pull back all the old valuable favorites that will more deeply engage.

I still need:

to figure out how current common Core curriculum can be used as a guideline ~~for~~ but not as a prescription ~~when~~ for the parts that haven't been engaging. Re-establish commitment to extended play

Comments:

Thank you! :)

Please comment:

As an SLP, I would use these ideas - but w/ limited application My students are very low

But I loved it!

I expected:

To talk about play specific strategies & centers - w/ teachers I work with

I received:

The importance of the need for play (I know) & the fact that the standards are changing - yay - I did my own thing to address student needs already

After this workshop I plan to:

push into classrooms & use play ideas from a book.

I still need:

Playful Learning Lab

I expected:

more discussion of/about the Lisa Murphy Play book and how to incorporate more play into our day.

I received:

a bit of stuff about Play and alot of stuff about standards

After this workshop I plan to:

try to be more intentional when reading the stories, not just characters, author and plot. after reading for fun.

I still need:

How to incorporate more play into our day and still meet all the expectations/programs we are supposed to use.

Comments:

it's always good to be aware of the changes in the standards.
