

Disrupting Poverty

Book Study

Join fellow educators from the region as we dig deeper and explore practical strategies for disrupting poverty. Teachers will participate in an intensive two-part book study Disrupting Poverty by Kathleen M. Budge and William H. Parratt that will explore five powerful classroom practices. Throughout this book Kathleen Budge and William Parrett dispel harmful myths, explain facts, and urge educators to act against the debilitating effects of poverty on their students. They share the powerful voices of teachers to amplify the five classroom practices that permeate the culture of successful high-poverty schools:

- Caring relationships and advocacy
- High expectations and support
- Commitment to equity
- Professional accountability for learning
- The courage and will to act
