

Social Studies Resource Collecting:

Middle School & High School Social Studies Teachers

Working together to build a storehouse of resources

Collaborating and sharing what works in your classroom.

Participants to this workshop are asked to bring their best tools and tips to share with colleagues. Conversations will take place regarding best practices in their classrooms. Attendees will share resources and lessons which they have had success with. Resources brought and shared will be accessible to the region. Teachers are encouraged to bring resources to make this a day of collaborative sharing and learning that will better equip them in future instruction
