December 5, 2018

8:30 AM - 2:30 PM

CA BOCES Learning Resources at St. Bonaventure
(next to Challenger Center)

Looking for ways to bring robotics and computational thinking into your classroom? Nervous that you don't have the skills necessary for such an activity?

Come play and explore in a challenge-based environment with multiple different robots available from our SNAP resources and corresponding apps. Learn how to bring these robots into your classroom for multiple subject areas and develop lesson plans that you can take back to the classroom for use right away!
