As previously announced, this program will focus on a practical application of the Regulations. It will include a "train the trainer" mini session to help Coordinators ensure their District's Facilitators of Informal Resolutions, Investigators, Decision Makers and Decision Makers on Appeal are prepared to assist with a Title IX matter should one arise. Coordinators completing the program will leave with an updated resource to help their District remain in compliance with Title IX.

This training meets requirements under the Regulations for Title IX Coordinators.

Please ask your District representative to register you soon at:

CA BOCES Professional Development Training Registration "REGGIE" or email Jennifer.Ault@caboces.org.

To help offset expenses, the cost will be $50 per participant.

Questions? Please email Jennifer.Ault@caboces.org or call (716) 376-8233.

Directions to District Office, Bath CSD:

The District Office building, where the Title IX “Coordinator’s” workshop will be held is separate from the school building. Please enter campus via Kellar Street, just after the tennis courts turn left and drive alongside the middle school, once around the corner continue to drive alongside the middle school building, you will see the District Office on the left. You can park in available parking spaces in front and on the side of the District Office. On the map below the district building is circled in yellow and the path to drive there lined in yellow.
