

Middle & High School English Language Arts Collaborative Learning Community

The Collaborative Learning Community is designed to bring together middle and high school English teachers from districts across the Cattaraugus-Allegany BOCES region. The CLC will provide embedded professional development and opportunities for collegial collaboration focused on the following areas:

- ~Fostering student engagement
- ~Addressing the varying needs of classroom readers
- ~Utilizing meaningful & ongoing formative assessment
- ~Sharing best practices currently implemented in classrooms
- ~Crafting learning targets that enhance student understanding

Teachers are invited to attend as stand alone sessions or as a series of four days. Specific goals and agendas will be developed with participants for each session.
