

NEW LEAD EVALUATOR TRAINING

For New Administrators

September 23, 2015

8:30—2:30

CA BOCES Olean Center

Training Room C

Coffee and registration at 8:00

Lead evaluators of teachers are required to participate in training regarding evidence-based observation techniques, the New York State Teaching Standards, and state-approved teacher practice rubrics. This learning opportunity is intended for new evaluators who require more in-depth exposure to these aspects of the role. The general outcomes of the day will be:

- Understanding of 3012-c APPR regulations as well as changes for the upcoming 3012-d regulations.
- Recognition of evidence versus opinion and practice in observation techniques.
- Understanding of the NYS Teaching Standards and their relationship to Danielson-based and NYSUT-based rubrics.
- More in-depth understanding of the Danielson and NYSUT rubrics.
- Practice aligning evidence to the rubrics.

This is a COSER 529: Professional Development opportunity.
