

Calling MS/HS Social Studies teachers

Social Studies CLC (Collaborative Learning Community)

An opportunity to grow with colleagues as a learning community dedicated to History content.

This Collaborative Learning Community will meet on four different occasions to bring together middle and high school Social Studies teachers from various districts. The CLC will provide professional development focused on the NYS Social Studies Framework and the Inquiry model. This professional development will assist teachers in preparing lessons and units that utilize CCLS shifts and will allow for teachers/participants to share best practices from their classrooms.
