

SAVE THE DATE

Using Restorative Justice Principles and Practices to Support a Culture of Care in New York State Schools 2.0

Who:

Pilot Schools / BOCES Restorative Practice Teams

What:

You are invited to attend Using Restorative Justice Principles and Practices to Support a Culture of Care in New York State Schools 2.0. The training will be facilitated by Lori DeCarlo, Superintendent at Randolph Academy, and Jillian Putnam, Professional Development Coordinator at CA BOCES. Participants attending this 2.0 training must have completed the 4-day train-the-trainer session held in July 2018 with Dr. Tom Cavanagh from Colorado State University.

When:

Registration: 8:00-8:30 • January 10th, 8:30-3:00 • January 11th, 8:30-11:30 • Lunch on your own

Where:

New York State Museum • Concourse Room D • 222 Madison Ave., Albany, NY 12230

Registration Contact:

Laurie Sledge • Cattaraugus-Allegany BOCES • 716-376-8357 • Laurie_Sledge@caboces.org

Mark your calendars!
More information to follow.

2.0

