Description:

Calling all new teachers! This offering is open to teachers in their first year experience, supporting them in their instructional and professional practice. Through the CLC experience, teachers will receive a bevy of tools and techniques associated with engagement, management, planning, assessment, and differentiation. Each session will provide strategies within those focuses with learning centered around Teaching Standards I-VII. As an added element, new teachers will receive insight and feedback from former Teacher Academy participants and gain advice on how to manage their first years as a professional in education.

Facilitator(s):

Kathleen Agnello, Brendan Keiser

Objectives:

1. Discover tools and techniques related to engagement, differentiation, assessment, management and planning.
2. Explore the obligations for professional practice outlined in the NYS Teaching Standards.

Audience:

Teachers: NEW, All Grades, All Content
