Description:

Equipped with the knowledge of their school's student achievement goals, school librarians will use the Re-imagined IFC for collaboration with colleagues and increased student engagement. The IFC is endorsed by the Board of Regents and provides a K-12 Continuum for student engagement across content areas.

Facilitator(s):

Cecelia Fuoco

Objectives:

Participants will:

- Understand the scope and sequence of the Re-imagined IFC
- Review areas of strength and weaknesses within the Library Program and their instruction.
- Understand the value of tying in library instruction to the school's student achievement goals

Audience:

School Librarians
