

Uplifting All Students

STATEWIDE CONFERENCE

Equity ♦ Opportunity ♦ Access

MARCH 19, 2025
9:00 AM - 1:00 PM

This in-person and virtual conference will provide New York State administrators, leaders, and educators with an opportunity to learn about how school districts across the state are implementing programs that enhance student identity and overall well-being, partnering with families and communities, and collaborating with a range of stakeholders to support all students.

New York State Education Department (NYSED) staff, along with partners from districts, will share current practices across the state in several key areas with opportunities for discussion and collaboration with colleagues.

*Please note that to participate in this event, you must attend in person at a BOCES or Big 5 designated site.
