This workshop is designed to provide PK-12th grade teachers an opportunity to work collaboratively to support classroom learning and engagement for students who are impacted by poverty. In this workshop, participants will learn what research reveals about the connection between poverty, student behavior, and academic performance. Participant discussion will focus on instructional strategies that can be used to increase academic achievement and attendance while addressing the unique needs of students living in poverty.

Registration: Please have your Contact Person or Curriculum Coordinator register with Laurie Sledge at 716-376-8357 or laurie_sledge@caboces.org.
