Today was a great first day. I felt like I did learn a bit of cool new learning and instruction opportunities. It ~~was~~ would be nice to do some of these ideas in the gym but figuring out the technology portion is what I am trying to figure out now.

I expected: to learn new instructional and behavioral strategies	I received: new instructional strategies that I believe I could use in the near future
After this workshop I plan to: start using Flipgrid in some way, shape or form in the gym with is skill development, exit slips or students opinion on topics
I still need: to work on collaboration and get plenty of questions answered about things at the school district.	Comments: Thank you for the support! we need it
