I think time was a challenge, a full day (even though it was a Friday) May have allowed for more questions and sharing. Even another hour would have been useful.

Q6 When we reconvene for Restorative Practices 3.0 what additional supports or clarification do you need to implement what you learned from this professional development opportunity?

Not sure, perhaps more "real life" implementation examples. Sometimes a panel of perhaps 3 schools(one in year 1, year 2 and year 3) could be helpful.

Facilitate more meaningful circles and new ideas on bringing RJ to higher Ed in my role at college and delivering more opportunities for Towr 1 training to our components.

Q5 Describe any disappointed/unfulfilled expectations you had with this professional development opportunity.

I would have liked time to practice being a circle keeper. I didn't feel like I got to know people personally. I know their professional background, but didn't make any deeper connections with people because we were in circle the whole time. For the training over the summer and at the 2.0, I spent the evenings alone. Maybe adding some small group discussions would help facilitate getting to know each other better and making connections.

Q6 When we reconvene for Restorative Practices 3.0 what additional supports or clarification do you need to implement what you learned from this professional development opportunity?

I would love some round table discussions where 6-7 of us can sit at a table with an expert and problem solve barriers and share ideas. Definitely time to practice, practice, practice...

Bring the idea of the centerpiece and the importance of the talking piece to the schools I am working with.
