Please comment:

This was a re-hash of the first training I went to on the same subject. Why was I asked to attend this? Information and facilitation was great. I just already had it.

I expected:

To receive new information on co-teaching.

I received:

The exact same info I got at my last training. This is not the facilitators fault. why was I sent to the exact same training twice?

After this workshop I plan to:

Have a stern talk with the administrators.

I still need:

Co-planning time with my co-teacher. I've expressed this before, and have never gotten it. Does our admin not care? Do they want co-teaching to actually be successful? I need a consistent co-teacher. ~~I~~ I have 4 different co-teachers I work with throughout the day. There is no consistency. It also changes every year. We never get a chance to build anything because we are constantly starting over.

Comments:

My special-ed co-teachers are so busy that this model simply won't work. Stop putting so much responsibility on their plate!
